Reflections

“The Lifestyle of Forgiveness”

<sup>21</sup> Then Peter came and said to him, ‘Lord, if another member of the church sins against me, how often should I forgive? As many as seven times?’ <sup>22</sup> Jesus said to him, ‘Not seven times, but, I tell you, seventy-seven times.’

Matthew 18:21-22

Very frequently we need to return to the topic of forgiveness. It is one of the most fundamental instructions in Christianity, and probably one of the least understood practices of our faith. Atonement is the process of restoring broken relationship. Forgiveness is a lifestyle of choosing to not be controlled by past grievances. Both atonement and forgiveness are foundational to the Old and New Testaments. Our process of restoring relationship with God, and with others, underlies all the messages of the bible. The bible reports wars, battles, and conflicts, but it commands forgiveness. In the bible, there are stories of judgment, condemnation, and grudges, but these are not the instruction or message, they are merely episodes on the way to the message.

God called Abraham to a covenant, so that through him, all the nations of the earth could be blessed with forgiveness. God gave the law to the Hebrew people on Mount Sinai so they could learn to be a covenant people who lived by love and forgiveness. The land was given so that the Hebrew people could demonstrate community. The prophets recalled the failure to practice love, justice, and peace, as it conflicted with God’s plan. Then, ultimately, and finally, Jesus was born because God so loved the world that he sent his son, not to condemn the world but that through him the world might know reconciliation with God. It’s all about forgiveness.

This becomes an important point as we increasingly see the challenges to forgiveness, throughout our world. Our culture looks at conflicts as battles to be won, rather than broken relationships to be reconciled. We view interpersonal relationships with an eye towards who is right and who is the “bad” person. We are not forgiveness people.

A lifestyle of forgiveness means to be constantly working to choose reconciliation over holding a grudge; to work towards what is healing rather than what will achieve the biggest victory. Above all, it puts us in the position of having to examine our motivations and emotions - are we serving hostility, anxiety, and vengeance or are we truly working towards what is good and healing for all? When Peter was asking about forgiveness, he thought the point was to up the tolerances and delay the retaliation - which from what we can tell with Peter - was a good idea. But that was not the center of the thought. The goal was to be non-reactive. Our aim is to be so full of confidence in God’s approval for us, and so secure in our knowledge of Christ’s steadfast love, that we do not feel the need to react or retaliate. What we should do, instead, is to seek to do what is healing for all. Obviously, we have got some work to do.

Forgiveness is what will enable Christians to stand out against the current upsurge of hostility and retaliation that is dominating our world. Forgiveness, practiced wisely, can accomplish miracles! There is no greater miracle than when a place of hostility and brokenness is transformed into a healed relationship.

Peace,
Pastor Jack

Coming Up in Worship

07/04/2021

Communion, First Blended

Sermon: "What is the Authority of God's Word"

Theme: We seek listen to the Word of God rather than superimpose upon God's Word our personal issues.

Purpose: We will learn to listen to God's Word.

Scriptures: 2 Corinthians 12:2-10 Boasting about spirituality versus dealing with personal spiritual struggles. Where we are weak, then we are strong.

Mark 6:1-13 A prophet is not without honor except in his own house.
The authority is given to overcome unclean spirits.

Questions:

How is it that some did not see Jesus' authority because they were too "familiar" with him while for others he had the power to transform their lives? What makes the difference between our healing and renewal? Do miracles still happen today? What difference does our spiritual experience make in terms of our actual relationship with God? What do we need to do to be healthy in our relationship with God?

07/11/2021

Sermon: "The Role of 'Elijah'"

Theme: We see God work through prophets and priests in order to accomplish the righteousness and growth of God's people.

Purpose: We will understand the tension between the roles in scripture of the prophets and priests.

Scriptures: Amos 7:7-15 Amos and the Plumb Line

Mark 6:14-29 Herod orders the beheading of John the Baptist.

Questions:

What does it mean for a person to speak as a prophet? How does a person come to be speaking by the power of the Holy Spirit? How do we know that someone is a prophet? What does it mean to us that a particular person is "inspired by God?" What makes a particular statement or message prophetic? What is the authority or power of words that are prophetic?

07/18/2021

Sermon: "The Language of God"

Theme: Though the bible is made up of Hebrew, Greek, and Aramaic it is unified by the one relationship with God through the Holy Spirit.

Purpose: To understand what makes the differences in the language of the bible.

Scriptures: Ephesians 2:11-22 God has broken down the divisions and brought all people together in relationship through Christ.

Mark 6:30-34, 53-56 Jesus and the disciples are followed by crowds hungry to hear their message.

Questions:

Why do some translations of the bible seem to sound very different from others? Is there a right or a best translation? What are the languages of the bible? In what ways do we have misinterpretation of the bible? Can we be sure that what we read is really from God? How do we make sense of what is written in the bible if we don't have the languages or skills to know the background?

Coming Up in Worship (continued)

07/25/2021

Sermon: "What About Miracles?"

Theme: Miracles are signs and messages that people will see differently depending upon their relationship with God, but can appreciate the common sign and meaning.

Purpose: We will see what unites us and divides us in our interpretation of how God works in our midst.

Scriptures: Ephesians 3:14-21      May you be filled by the riches and great power of God.
John 6:1-21                  Jesus feeds the five thousand and walks on the water, stills the storm.

Questions:

What should we believe regarding miracles? Is it acceptable for people to disagree about how literally to take accounts of miracles? What are the purposes of miracles? Why don't miracles happen more frequently? How does someone who is less inclined to believe in supernatural events interpret scripture as opposed to someone who feels a strong connection to the miracle stories? Why do many people find themselves in arguments over their belief in miracles?

08/01/2021 Communion

Sermon: "Faith or Bread"

Theme: We receive the scriptures as a message of God's presence and love that enables us to trust God in the things we do not know.

Purpose: We will examine how we respond to unknown and uncertain times.

Scriptures: Exodus 16:2-4, 9-15      The Hebrews in the wilderness complain against Moses and are fed by God with Manna.
John 6:24-35                  Jesus chastises the crowds for their want of bread rather than the food that endures for eternal life.

Questions:

How do we handle when we are uncertain about the future and unclear about how problems will be resolved? Do we trust God to provide for our needs or do we feel like it is up to us to solve our own problems? Do we see challenges and trials as a failure or something to resent or are we able to see through faith opportunities for God to be glorified? Do we live by our bread alone or do we seek the food that is the source of eternal life?

August 21 - Back to School FDL

We are excited to tell you that Back-to-School FDL is starting! It is going to be a great year!

Back-to-School will be back "home" at the Boys and Girls Club. Although things will still look a little different, families will be allowed inside the building, this year.

If you would like to donate school supplies, you can drop them off at the Back-to-School box in the church Narthex. Supplies will be pre-packed, like they were last year.

Volunteer opportunities are explained here:

volunteer registration form.

As always, the health and safety of volunteers is important.

As we get closer to the date decisions regarding COVID 19 restrictions will be made.

August 27-28 - Rock the Block

Imagine coming together with community members to make a difference in our own neighborhood!

Habitat for Humanity of Fond du Lac County is organizing a Rock the Block event on August 27-28. The Rock the Block program brings residents and community partners together to collaborate efforts in targeted neighborhoods. This year's event will focus on the neighborhoods of Hamilton Street and Forest Avenue.

Volunteers and staff will work together to help revitalize the community by doing exterior home repairs, yard and street clean up, landscaping, painting and more. Along with Habitat's community partners, Habitat can now help assist low-income residents with home repairs, help maintain home ownership rates, improve the housing stock, and increase neighborhood pride. The Habitat community also assists with projects that will help to improve and beautify the neighborhood, at large.
