June Session Highlights

At the June 20, 2022, regular Session meeting, we held a discussion regarding the 4 types of community we are called to be, as listed in the Book of Order. The four types of community are: faith, hope, love, and witness. It was noted that this is very similar to a bible passage from I Corinthians 13, which is often read at weddings.

The following people were examined and approved for installation/ordination on June 26:

Deacons	Mary Ellen McMeen, Orv and Gail Kamphuis,
Elders	Deb Cooley, Laurie Christie, Sue Baker and Mike Warntjes.

Session reviewed and approved two proposed amendments to the church by-laws. The first amendment reduces the number of members on the Nominating Committee from 7 to 5. The second amendment adjusts the church's operating calendar. Instead of July thru June (which was adopted 5 years ago), we will return to the calendar year (January thru December). Both amendments were discussed and approved at our Annual Meeting on Sunday (June 26).

Pastor Ken announced that the Congregational Mission Study Team will be made up of Kristina Arellano, Jolene Schry, and Deb Lorenz.

Session approved the 2022/2023 budget calling for a deficit of $43,000. The short fall can be covered by using some of the church's reserves but is a cause for concern going forward.

Season of Ordinary Time

Each part of the liturgical year has either a special season or is in 'ordinary time'. A special season is: Lent, Easter, Advent, and Christmas.

Whenever the Church isn't celebrating one of these, it is Ordinary Time.

Each season begins with a time of preparation and anticipation followed by a time of celebration. A season designated as Ordinary Time follows each cycle.

“Where Are We in Our Interim Process?”

Some of you may be wondering about our interim process and how it is going. Briefly, here's what's happening.

With our Session's guidance, Kristina Arellano, Debby Lorenz, and Jolene Schry have all agreed to serve on our CONGREGATIONAL MISSION STUDY TEAM (CMST). This team will design and implement a CONGREGATIONAL MISSION STUDY (CMS). The study is a critical part of the interim period. If done well, the CMS will help us answer three questions: Who are we; Who is our neighbor; In what direction do we think God wants us to go?

My job is to convene and guide the team. Their job is to design the study and gather the information with as much congregational involvement as possible. While we are still in the early planning stages, we have already begun dividing up the work and setting goals. They are a smart and creative bunch and will doubtless come up with ideas I would never have thought of. I can imagine them doing research in our archives, holding round-table discussions and listening sessions, sending out surveys, and holding congregational gatherings. There will certainly be a presentation or two and maybe even a video. We'll have to see.

Naturally, we want the process to move quickly, but not too quickly. A good Mission Study is organic. Like anything else that ripens, it takes as long as it takes. Trust us that the elegant swan, majestically making its way across the pond, is paddling as fast as it can.

Our goal, then, is to produce a Mission Study that will help us see ourselves clear-eyed, guide the PASTOR NOMINATING COMMITTEE (PNC) and serve as an introduction to our church for prospective pastors and new members.

Drawing on the CMS, we will be able to decide what kind of skills we want in our next pastor. If the team does its work well, and the congregation actively participates every step of the way, the Mission Study will be invaluable in locating the person God is guiding to us.

After the study has been completed, presented to the congregation and approved by the Session, it must be approved by our Presbytery's COMMITTEE ON MINISTRY (COM). We are a connectional denomination. What happens in one church affects all of us and so the Presbytery has a legitimate interest in our search process.

After the Mission Study is approved, the congregation will elect a PNC. Using the CMS, the PNC will create the MINISTRY INFORMATION FORM (MIF). The MIF is effectively our job description and will be posted on the PC (USA) job board. All pastors seeking calls can see it. Once it has been approved by our Session and the COM, our PNC can post it and begin seeking a new pastor.

At that point, I step back. I am still there for pastoral care and perhaps some professional insight, but I will have only limited contact with our PNC. Our COM will appoint someone to guide them through the process.

The interim process should not be rushed. Generally speaking, there should be at least one month for every year of ministry between the last pastor and the next pastor. A full year would be about right for us. Choosing another pastor too soon both dishonors their memory and runs the risk of interfering with the new pastor's integration. No one wants to eat a salad when they have a mouth full of tomato soup. It ruins the taste of both. Now is the time to cleanse our palette so that we can be well prepared to enjoy our next pastor.

In the meantime, we are not sitting still. We are doing mission work, Christian education, worshipping and sharing the Good News of God's love.

Please pray for our leadership, our CMST, and our congregation as we make the most of this interim time.

God's peace to us all,
Pastor Ken

News from the Loving Team

We are going to do the volunteer sign-up for Fellowship Time on Google docs. You can find that link here. There will also be a hard copy at the Welcome Center.

Sign-up has another new twist! We have broken up the hosting into four categories:

Set Up            Make Coffee
Make Treats    Clean Up

Pick what works best for you: 1-2 categories, or maybe all of them!?

There are directions, in the kitchen, for all areas of participation. If you feel like baking for future Sundays, you can store your treats in the freezer (in the pantry).

Fellowship Time is the perfect time to celebrate special occasions with our church family like birthdays, anniversaries or just because!

Please call Nancy Hilbert:
920.921.2514
if you have any questions.

St. Katharine Drexel Center

We need Facilitators for Getting Ahead Program. The Katharine Drexel Center is looking for facilitators to help the economically disadvantaged to get back on their feet.

If you have:

- A concern for people struggling economically
- Want to help those in need
- Have a desire to help people become self-sufficient
- Have compassion for others
- Want to engage with others who are learning how to get ahead

We expect to hold 6-8 ongoing programs and each program needs a facilitator. Can you help? A Getting Ahead facilitator will be familiar with the program philosophy, contents and materials.

You can find out more about the getting ahead programs here and here.

Trained facilitators, mentors and guests guide participants through a 10-module study, exercises, and discussions. Please contact:

Liturgist Summertime Sign-up

If you are willing and available to serve as a liturgist this summer, the sign-up sheet can be accessed by clicking here. Information regarding readings will be sent to you the first part of the week, along with a letter explaining arrival time and expectations. For pronunciations the following website is helpful:

<https://biblespeak.org/>

Thank you for being a part of the service. Your presence and participation remind us that the church belongs to the people, not just the leadership. Furthermore, you will be demonstrating that worship is a verb. It is something we do. The congregation is not an audience, passively watching the 'show'. Rather, the congregation is taking an active role in the service itself.

Thank you for being part of this important ministry

If you have any questions please contact Kris, Worship Coordinator: kbartelt@fdlpresbyterian.org

Financial News

Dear Friends,

We are happy to report that our contributions significantly exceeded our budget for the month of May! This was due in part, to the overwhelming response that we had for our "Raise the Roof" campaign. Outstanding job!!

We really do appreciate all of your help with the upkeep of the property. Take a 'look up', if you haven't done so lately, we think you will be pleasantly surprised at how great the roof looks. Lopez Roofing Company did a beautiful job.

Our expenses for May, were in line with what we had budgeted. Next month will be a little different, because of the cost of the roof .

Questions or concerns can be directed to the Finance Team.

Sincerely,

The Finance Team

John Neville      Treasurer
Judy Dassow     Assistant Treasurer
Mary Robotka    Staff Financial Assistant

As in the past, the distributions will be held at the Boys & Girls Club of FDL. We hope that the Back-to-School experience will provide an uplifting, encouraging and compassionate experience for all the families and children who participate.

A collection box will be available in the church narthex in mid-July. A list of supplies can be found here. Monetary donations can be placed in the offering plate or through the church website. Donations will be accepted into mid-August.

More information, including volunteer opportunities, will be available soon. The information will be included in the Wednesday Updates and Sunday Reminders.
